BODY BUILDER

Maybe it's a truck body. Maybe a racing car body. But whatever model you're building, you want it to look the best. That means putting in a ton of care and concentration. And paying particular attention to the details.

And when it comes to details, no one out-muscles MPC. Details are MPC's strength. You see, at MPC special effort is given to insure that every car or truck is 100% authentic.

Whether it's an old model or a new one. A Classic Muscle Car or any of the newest '87 American High Performance Cars, MPC's got a model kit you can wrestle with.

So if it's a great body you want to show off, get an MPC Model Kit.

Just like the real thing. Only smaller.

AIRWOLF™

REAL ENGINE POWERED
MODEL HELICOPTER
YOU CAN FLY!

Flying your own Airwolf helicopter is a blast! But it's not for the timid. That's because the Airwolf's powered by a real piston driven Cox .049 engine. Fire that baby up, watch the Airwolf's huge blades gain rotation speed and let it fly. Your Airwolf climbs a hundred feet into the sky! Then, the engine runs out of fuel. Your Airwolf begins to fall! But no worry — everything's cool. The sudden loss of altitude causes the auto-rotation blades to change pitch. Your Airwolf slows and settles in for a perfect soft landing. You're proud! You proved your ability! You can fly our own Cox .049 engine powered Airwolf helicopter! Visit your favorite hobby shop or other retailer to get yourself an Airwolf and have a blast!

Dear Star Comics,

I love all of your comics. My favorite one is FLINTSTONE KIDS! I collect every issue, once they come out!

Also, if it isn't too much trouble, could you please send me an autographed picture of the Kids?

Rosie Fernandez
Yonkers, NY

Whew! Thanks for waiting till they come out. If everyone came here to get their issues of FLINTSTONE KIDS ... well, we have to think! Working during a stampede can be tough!

Dear FLINTSTONE KIDS,

Issue #6 was very funny — especially "It Ain't Ness-essany Sol" "Foreign Intrigue" I really loved, too. Another funny one was "Out to Launch," and ... Boy, this issue has a lot of funny stories! "Clean Living" was the last one.

I'm starting to collect them. I really love FLINTSTONE KIDS!

Loures Algarin
Brooklyn, NY

Wow, Loures! You haven't missed a story ... In Feb #6, that is! Now you'll just have to do the same for issues #1 through 5, and then for #7 on up! (Don't forget to stock up on STAR COMICS MAGAZINE, too — future issues will include reprints from the premiere issue of your favorite gang's adventures! Not to be missed!)

Dear FLINTSTONE KIDS,

I love your comic, and I think Freddy is really funny.

I collect the Flintstones and Flintstone Kids things. I was wondering if you could send me some kind of Flintstone memorabilia.

P.S. Please try to make FLINTSTONE KIDS monthly!

Derric McCallery
Vancouver, WA

Gee, Derric, why do you want to remember FLINTSTONE KIDS when there are so many new stories to discover for the first time?? And we'd love to send them to you — just order a subscription!

As for mailing FLINTSTONE KIDS monthly ... we'd love to do that, too, but so far we haven't got the go-ahead! But maybe, just maybe, if enough fans send enough letters ...

Dear Sirs,

My name is Steven McMahan. I am twenty-two years old, and a Flintstone fan! I have a subscription to FLINTSTONE KIDS, but do not have #1 and #2. Could you please send me information on how I could get those two volumes?

Thanks a lot.

Steven McMahan

We don't need to send you information, Steven — we'll tell you right here!

The best way to get back issues is to consult your local comics dealer. He or she will have copies in stock, or will know where to find them, from mail order companies that deal specifically in back issues. If you have no comics dealer, try writing to one of the mail order companies that advertise in regular Marvel comics. Even if they don't advertise FLINTSTONE KIDS, there's a good chance they'll have what you want.

Of course, there's one other place you might want to look ... In our own STAR COMICS MAGAZINE! Plans are underway at this very moment to reprint stories from FLINTSTONE KIDS #1, some in STAR COMICS MAGAZINE #12, some in #13.

The gang may be out of the stone age, but they're never out of style!

Dear FLINTSTONE KIDS,

I really love FLINTSTONE KIDS! Freddy, Barney, Betty and Wilma are so cute. I would like an autographed picture of them.

Do you think Philo could make a machine and Freddy could go in it, and then there would be double Freddys? In your comics?

One more question: will there ever be a Flintstone Kids club?

Michael Bartlett
Ottawa, Ontario
Canada

That's not a bad idea, Michael, about the gang playing doubles — and we don't mean tennis! Perhaps you will see just such a story before too long.

As for a fan club, we don't know of any yet — maybe you'd like to start your own?

But now a question for you! Why, oh, why is everyone asking for an autographed pic of the gang? Didn't we just run one in issue #6? Sheesh! You guys are insatiable!! Well, maybe we'll do it again ... just maybe, if you all write a lot of letters, and are really good ...

Dear Bedrock Tablet,

I love both the FLINTSTONE KIDS comic and television show. The two things that I would really like to see in the comic from the TV show would be "Dino's Dilemmas," and "Captain Caveman ... and Son!" I would really love seeing these portions of the show comicized.

In issue #6, Barney looked a little overweight. Or is it me? Other than that, you've remained pretty constant with your drawings, and kept the drawings like those on the show.

I am very pleased with what you've done for the FLINTSTONE KIDS comic book, and ask that you continue!

Yabba-dabba-dooing my part!

David S. Williams
Paterson, NJ

Thanks, David! 'Bout time our talented staff got some of that prehistoric praise!

Unfortunately, no plans are underway to feature Captain Caveman and Son. But we have had a few cameos on Dino — "Clean Living" in ish #6 was one.

Dear Star Comics,

I'm sorry to inform you that I've found some mistakes in FLINTSTONE KIDS #4. The errors are on page 2, panels 1 and 3. If you look closely, you'll notice that in panel 1, on Fred's soapbox derby car, there is no lettering on the side. Also, in panel 3, the lettering is there, but it says "Flintstone Fever" instead of "Flintstone Flyer."

I believe what happened was that when Fred was driving his car, he broke the "LETTERING BARRIER" so the lettering didn't catch up with his car yet. When it finally did catch up, it got scrambled. That's why it said "Fever" instead of "Flyer." Then, during panels 4, 5, 6, and 7, Fred's stegosaurus reached its mouth back and rearranged the letters to make the side of the soapbox derby car read "Flintstone Flyer."

If you think this explanation is good enough, please send me an original Marvel "No-Prize."

Thank you!

Paul R. Conan
Gig Harbor, WA

Good try, Paul! Consider yourself No-Prized!

Dear STAR,

I have some of your FLINTSTONE KIDS issues. These are the issues I have: #3-6. I missed #1 and 2. Can you put them in STAR COMICS MAGAZINE very soon?

Can I have an autographed picture of everyone please?

I looked at issue #3 "Love Potion #8 1/2." It was about Freddy hiding, and Dreamchip wanting a love potion to make Freddy like her, plus a story about Wilma's private diary.

This is it! I'm finished! That's all for now! See you later, alligator!
